The Drawing Board The Structural Engineer

Enter a sketch in the next competition – deadline 3 April 2023

The Drawing Board is The Structural Engineer's quarterly sketching competition, judged by Ron Slade FIStructE of WSP.

Sketches must be:

- hand drawn (no CAD, except for 'guided free-hand')
- from a real project or assignment
- at a suitable scale for publication (i.e. not too intricate/detailed).

Please also submit a short description (150 words) to put the sketch into context.

To take part, submit your entries to: tse@istructe.org

Each published entry will receive a free single e-book from the Institution's current list of titles.
